

MIC Quick Facts

- Important information about HVBL days
 - HVBL days may not be moved
 - If FA has HVBL days, and can plot a trip prior to 1200, then plotting trip on all HVBL days will satisfy obligation. If FA cannot plot trip on HVBL days, FA must follow MIC procedures
 - HVBL entry – HIPLLOT/Position/Sequence/Date
- Make-up entry – HIHP/Start Date/End Date/MU
- FA should place name on MU list for all DOSTF
- A MIC FA is not obligated to accept a trip after the 1200-1330 HISEND make-up round
- Crew Schedule will not call you after the HISEND make-up round unless FA requests contact for future make-up rounds
- If FA is under monthly max, then may be assigned trip up to monthly max (PROJ)
 - No Option – 90 hours
 - Option 1 – 95 hours
- If FA is above monthly max, then may be assigned value of trip lost plus one hour
- The obligation period includes the calendar days covering the days originally scheduled to fly
 - FA may be subject to multiple assignments on DOSTF
 - FA may be assigned a trip that flies into a DO
 - FA may not be assigned a trip that flies into a DFP
- FA has option to opt out of pay protection