

Flight Attendant, alternate settling days will be provided as close to the days initially requested by the Flight Attendant, and settling expenses as specified in Paragraph D.5 will be paid until such five (5) consecutive calendar days free from all duty are given.

5. Settling and en-route expenses will consist of reasonable actual expenses, when substantiated by receipts for a Flight Attendant and her/his family members incurred for meals, lodging and telephone calls. Extraordinary expenses will be allowed as circumstances indicate.
6. The provisions of Paragraphs D.1 through D.5 shall not be utilized to reduce subsequent days off.

E. GENERAL

The payment of moving expenses shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. The move must be completed within three (3) years of the effective date of the transfer. The date of the move will be the date the mover loads the household effects where the move originates.
2. The Flight Attendant's new residence (as defined in Paragraph H) must be located within two hundred (200) miles of the Flight Attendant's new crew base. If another employee group is allowed greater than two hundred (200) miles, the greater distance will be extended to Flight Attendants.
3. The distance between the Flight Attendant's old residence and the new residence must be the lesser of fifty (50) miles or fifty percent (50%) of the distance between the crew base from which and to which the Flight Attendant is being transferred.
4. A Flight Attendant who has been granted a Company paid move prior to the date of signing of this Agreement shall be governed by the provisions of the applicable collective bargaining agreement in effect at the time the Flight Attendant became eligible for the Company paid move.
5. When mutually agreeable, the above limitations may be extended due to unusual circumstances.
6. In the event a Flight Attendant becomes eligible for moving expenses under this Section more than one time prior to exercising her/his right to expenses for the first event triggering such eligibility, then such Flight Attendant may receive expenses for no more than one (1) move under this Section. When such Flight Attendant elects to move, she/he shall notify the Company which of the displacement events for which she/he is eligible in accordance with Paragraph A shall be used for expense reimbursement under Paragraph E.

F. VOLUNTARY TRANSFERS

1. A Flight Attendant transferred from one crew base to another at her/his own request or as a result of a priority return will bear her/his own expenses, except free available space on Company transportation facilities for the shipping of personal belongings shall be furnished to the extent permitted by law.
2. Upon Flight Attendant request, the Company shall provide a Flight Attendant who voluntarily transfers to another crew base with five (5) consecutive calendar days free of all duty for the purpose of relocating. Such settling days shall be provided subject to coverage requirements, but shall not be subject to payment for time lost or any expenses incurred.
